

A rare opportunity:

every Thursday in the Barnes Room

Secure a professional, flexible space on a regular weekly basis in the heart of Billingshurst. Whether you need a client-facing venue, a reliable team base, or a private space for meetings, training or consultations, the Barnes Room offers the ideal solution without the overheads of a long-term lease.

Perfect for

- Remote-first businesses and startups
- Consultants, coaches and private practitioners
- Trainers, tutors and workshop leaders
- Charities, community groups and support services
- Professional services, sales teams and regional reps

What's included

- Prime location near the station
- Reliable Wi-Fi and screen/video conferencing
- Reception support
- Flexible seating and privacy
- Parking and accessibility
- Tea and coffee available
- Competitive rates for local businesses and charities
- Evening access available

Make Thursdays work for you.

To discuss this opportunity, contact reception@billingshurst.gov.uk